

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

¹ Major Blakiston having passed through the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich in 1802, he proceeded to India as a Cadet in the East India Company's Service, and was appointed to the Corps of Engineers on the Madras Establishment, being then on half-pay as a Lieutenant in H. M. Service. In 1803 he served in the campaign against the Mahrattas, and was engaged in the battles of Asaye and Argaum, and at the sieges and assaults of Ahmednuggur and Gawilghur. At the suppression of the mutiny at Vellore in 1805 he directed the guns by which the gate was blown open. In 1810 he acted as Chief Engineer at the capture of the Island of Bourbon. Having been employed in reconnoitring the coast of the Isle of France previous to the arrival of the expedition, he was instrumental in discovering the spot where the descent was made; and, having been appointed to the charge of the Guides, he led the advance of the Army until the surrender of that Island. For his services on the above occasion he was nominated Extra Aide-de-Camp to the Commander-in-Chief, Sir Samuel Auchmuty, on the expedition to Java in 1811; and having been sent in advance with the Chief Engineer to fix on the point of landing, he was engaged in a serious affair on the coast in the boats of H. M. ships Barracouta and Leda. On the landing of the Army he was engaged in the affairs of Wellevrieden and Samarang, and at the siege and assault of the fortified position of Cornelis. In 1812, having attained the rank of Captain in the corps of Madras Engineers, he returned on furlough to England. Shortly afterwards, having been placed on full pay in H. M. 87th Regt., he was appointed to a Company in the 17th Portuguese Regt., with which he served in the Light Division of the Peninsular Army until the conclusion of the war; having been present at the battles of Vittoria, Nivelle, Nive, Orthes, and Toulouse, and in all the affairs in which the Light Division was engaged. At the siege of San Sebastian he volunteered as an Engineer, and while so engaged was severely wounded. For his services on this occasion he was promoted to a Company in the 27th Regt.; in 1816 was placed on half-pay; and on the 23rd June 1843 he was brought on full pay of the 51st Regt., and retired by the sale of his commissions. He has received the War Medal with six Clasps; also the Indian War Medal and Clasps.

² Lt.-Col. Cooke served with the 43rd Regt. at Walcheren, in 1809. In June 1811 he joined the Light Division in the Peninsula, and was present at the siege and storming of Ciudad Rodrigo, and of Badajoz (wounded at the assault), actions of Castrejon and San Christoval, battle of Salamanca, actions of San Munoz and San Milan, battle of Vittoria (wounded), actions in the Pyrenees, siege of San Sebastian, the attack on the heights of Vera, battle of the Nivelle, battles of the Nive on the 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, and 13th Dec., actions at Tarbes and Arcangues, battle of Toulouse, besides various affairs of less importance. On the 8th Jan. 1815, he was present at the attack on the American Lines before New Orleans. He served afterwards with the Army during the Occupation in France. He has received the War Medal with eight Clasps.

³ Captain Lindam served in the 10th Foot in the Sutlej campaign of 1845-46, and was severely wounded (lost a leg) at the battle of Sobraon (Medal). He served also four years as Paymaster in the Rifle Brigade in British Caffraria, including the Kaffir war of 1846-47.

⁴ Captain Augustus S. Bolton served the campaign on the Sutlej (Medal and three Clasps). He acted as Aide-de-Camp to Sir Harry Smith at Moodkee and Ferozeshah, and was Adjutant of the 31st at Bud-dawal, Aliwal, and Sobraon (severely wounded).

⁶ Captain Phillips served with the 47th Regt. in the Eastern campaign of 1854, and was severely wounded at the battle of Alma (Medal and Clasp).

In 1798 he embarked in command of the 28th Lt. Dra. for the Cape of Good Hope, and served a short but active campaign under Sir Thomas Craig, when he accompanied his Regt. to India, where he served in the memorable campaigns of 1798 and 99, against Tippoo Sultan, including the battle of Mellavelly, and siege of Seringapatam. Dra., at the head of which he distinguished himself, during the campaign in the north of Portugal, including the operations at Oporto, and afterwards at the battle of Talavera. In Aug. 1809, the local rank of Lieut.-Gen. was conferred upon him; and, early in 1810, he was appointed to the command of the whole allied cavalry under the Duke of Wellington, and remained in that command until the termination of the war in 1814, and distinguished himself at the head of the cavalry upon every occasion that presented itself, including the various actions in covering the retreat from Almeida to Torres Vedras, battle of Busaco, actions at Villa Garcia and Castrejon, battles of Fuentes d'Onor and Salamanca (severely wounded), action at El Bodon, battle of the Pyrenees, Orthez, and Toulouse. Served also at the siege and capture of Bhurtpore, in 1826 and 28, as Commander-in-Chief. 1 Sir De Lacy Evans served in India in 1807, 8, 9, and 10. Portugal, Spain, and France in 1809, 10, and 11. America, part of 1814-15. Belgium and France in 1815, 16, 17, and 18. In Spain in 1808, 09, and 10. Present during the operations against Ameer Khan and the Pindarries, capture of the Mandar, part of the retreat from Burgos, action on the Hornos (wounded), battle of Vittoria, investment of Pampeluna, battle of the Pyrenees, investment of Bayona (horse shot), actions of Vie Egorre and Terres battle of Toulouse (horse shot), battle of Bladensburg (two horses shot), capture of Washington, attack on Baltimore, operations before New Orleans (boarding and capture of American Flotilla),—action 24th Dec. wounded severely—unsuccessful assault, Jan. (wounded severely), battle of Quatre Bras, retreat of 17th of June, Waterloo (horse shot and one sabred), investment and capitulation of Paris. Continued on Staff of Allied Army of Occupation in France. Accepted under an allied Power (1805) command of an auxiliary British and Spanish corps of army by sanction and desire of the English Government, and by order of the King in Council. Acted, while so employed, in conjunction with the British forces (under Lord J. By), and through mediation of British authorities—raising investments of San Sebastian and Bilbao, action of Arishan, capture of port and castle of Passages. Defeated the enemy in general actions on the 5th of May, 6th of June, 1st of October (wounded) 1808, also 10th and 15th of March 1807. Attacked near Herosol, 10th March, by the élite of the Carlist army, 15,000 strong (about double the allied force), and obliged to retreat about one mile, but with a less loss in killed and wounded (600) than that of the enemy. Resumed the offensive the following month—capture of Hernani by escalade, 14th May—of Oyarrun, 16th May—of Yrua, by storm 17th May—of Fontarabie by capitulation, 18th May. These, and other minor affairs, were for the most part, severely contested, and cost (including those of the enemy) above ten thousand killed and wounded. Excepting occasionally two or three stragglers, generally without arms, the Legion never lost (under his command) prisoners, artillery, or equipage, though utterly contrary statements repeatedly appeared at the time—while he took from the enemy 100 officers, 1000 men, thirty pieces of cannon, several entrenched positions, fortified towns and posts, with an extensive and most important strategical tract of the insurgent territory, including their main line of retreat, communication and supply. Thouvenin "The frontier was effectually closed against the entrance of resources to the Carlists, except by the small mountain passes, which are only accessible to foot passengers, or mules lightly laden"—(British Commissioners' Dispatch, Parliamentary Paper)—and thus did this auxiliary corps decidedly contribute to the successful termination of the war. He holds the rank of Lieut.-General in the national army of Spain, by license of a British royal warrant; also, honoured by Her Majesty for these services with the Cross of Commander of the Bath, and by the government of Spain with the Grand Cross of St. Ferdinand and Charles III. ¹ General Wood served six years in the West Indies. Accompanied the expedition to Hanover in 1805. He next served the campaign of 1808-9, including the battle of Corunna. Subsequently at the siege of Flushing, he volunteered to storm the enemy's entrenchments, which he carried; and in November he was again sent to Walcheren to cover the embarkation of the troops when the island was evacuated. In 1810 he proceeded to the Mediterranean, where he served three years, and on being promoted, in 1813, to the Lieut.-Colonelcy of the 85th, he joined the army in Spain. In 1814 he accompanied the 85th to America, and commanded it at the battle of Bladensburg, where he received four severe wounds, had a horse shot under him, and was obliged to surrender himself as a prisoner of war. He has received the War Medal with one Clasp for Corunna. On 14th March 1861 he was appointed Commander of the Forces in the Windward and Leeward Islands, where he served the usual period of five years.

He was also at the storm and destruction of the town of Bambacoo, and in the subsequent engagements with the enemy.
